RAMBLER

We feel that we are deeply indebted to you, Mr. Weldon Welch, for supporting our activities wholeheartedly during the years in which we have been in High School.

You have always been ready to extend help and advice during our most difficult and formative years. For your devotion and guidance to our class, we will always be grateful.

We are extremely grateful for your encouragement, your hard work, and unselfish devotion, that has made our class what it is today. We, the Annual Staff of 1964, proudly dedicate our yearbook to you.

 Mrs. Ray Bloodworth, Supervisor of Schools
 Mr. E. L. Hearington, County Superintendent
 Mr. Louis Welch, Attendance Teacher

Let me express appreciation to the Senior Class, the Annual Staff, and your sponsors for the contribution which you make to your school through "The Rambler." Through its pages you portray the spirit and traditions of Decaturville School.

As the year goes by you will read and re-read with growing interest its pages. May each reading deepen your appreciation for your school's contribution to your life.
